

CODE OF ETHICS FOR
AWARDS CHAIRMAN AND/OR COMMITTEE MEMBERS

The Awards Committee must be a neutral, unbiased body of individuals who should not be entitled to be eligible for any C.A.O.A.C. Recognition Award while he/she is a Chairperson or Regional Representative.

The following are the guidelines for this committee.

1. Any member of the Awards Committee and his/her immediate family are not eligible to receive any C.A.O.A.C. Recognition Award during their term with the exception of when the award is judged outside of C.A.O.A.C.
2. This includes regional representatives who are unable to attend meetings.
3. The President of C.A.O.A.C. or his/her delegate is excluded from Number one (1) but, if nominated for any award and present at the Awards Committee meeting, this person must leave the room for any discussion and/or vote.
4. Exceptions to this code may only be made by the unanimous decision of the C.A.O.A.C. Executive.
